

THE CENTRAL RECORD.

TWENTY NINTH YEAR

LANCASTER, KY., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 30, 1919.

NUMBER 44.

John Barleycorn will soon be buried and Aqua Pura will attend the funeral.

Germany has formed the habit of strife. If she cannot have war she will have riots.

France, England and the United States will speak in firm and equal voices at the peace conference.

All those owing me will PLEASE come forward and settle as I need the money. Mrs. Rella Francis.

Full stomachs and settled government evidently go together—else why food to prevent Bolshevism?

Prime 38.62 per cent protein Cotton Seed Meal. Hudson, Hughes and Farnau.

If you are tired, thin and thirty, be patient and have courage. You may be "fair, fat and forty" some day.

FOR SALE:—Three Hereford bull calves. Phone 374-R.

J. A. Owens, Crab Orchard, Ky. Route No. 2.

Had you too forgotten the enormous extent of Russia until you looked it up on the map day before yesterday?

FOUND:—On the streets last Monday, a small wrist watch. Owner can have same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

The National Drill for the people at home these last two years has been—Pocketbook. Extract—Dollars. Pay—Taxes.

General Foch has deserved well of the world. If he has a fancy for the Rhine or any other river, he ought to have it.

Wanted—Men accustomed to repairing, to re-make one world in bad condition. Quick and skillful workers required.

America can now gratify to the utmost her love for parades. There are plenty of fifes and drums and khaki at hand.

Both parties are on the lookout for good presidential timber. It must be good in order eventually to fit well in a cabinet.

The dries are satisfied, the wets are dissatisfied. But how about the class of our citizens who are wetter than dry and dryer than wet—how do they take it?

The boys returning home are claiming an affectionate welcome from their families, and they are also claiming plenty apple pie and chocolate cake.

It evidently is the opinion of the Senate that James Monroe had better come back and look after his doctrine, which appears to be in some danger of collapse.

Rev. Cox of Lexington, will fill the pulpit Sunday Feb. 2nd, at the New Antioch Church. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.

The High Cost of Living has neither been an invited nor a welcome visitor. When it makes its bow of farewell we shall all be ready to speed the parting guest.

Dr. Liebknecht's death causes us to reflect on the constant hazard attending the life of a revolutionist. The only thing which offsets it is the fact that such a life does not contain a dull moment.

The question whether the American girl or the French girl is more delightful continues to be argued, pro and con. Why not admit that each is the sweetest girl in the world and let go at that.

The government is requesting us to figure up our 1918 income, so that there will be no delay in turning in our income tax schedules at the proper time. It is also delicately hinting at the probability of a Victory Liberty Loan in the spring.

In securing the "dry" camel the nation is making an interesting addition to its menagerie. It already possessed the Democratic donkey and the G. O. P. elephant, and now only needs a box of monkeys to complete its collection. Perhaps the I. W. W.'s will favor.

Conservation of dress material was urged upon women and they adopted narrow skirts. Now the railroads are finding fault because, owing to the narrow skirts, the trains are delayed an average of seventeen additional seconds at each stopping place. What is to be done? Will the Women of America set in a breadth or must the timetables continue to suffer?

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS To Be Taken Next Sunday Afternoon. All Members Are Asked To Remain At Home.

The men of the Christian church will go out Sunday afternoon to take its annual Every Member Canvass.

Fifty men have been selected to go out in teams of two to call upon every member of the congregation.

The canvass will start from the church at 1:30 P. M. and continue until completed.

It will be a breach of christian courtesy if you are not at home to receive the team who calls to see you.

The men who comprise the teams will be served dinner at the church immediately after the morning service. Therefore, the teams are requested to come prepared not to go home for dinner.

The sermon subject Sunday morning will be "Looking Backward and Looking Forward".

Important Information Wanted At Once.

To complete the records of men who gave their lives in the cause of freedom, from this county, all persons who are in possession of definite information regarding the time, place and outfit of any such of Garrard County's heroes, are asked to communicate this information at once to this office or the Local Board, Room 5, Court House, Lancaster, Ky. This includes men who died at home, or abroad either in the Army, Navy or Marines. Please report this information promptly so that a permanent record of Garrard's heroic dead can be compiled without delay.

Sales of The Thomas Realty Agency.

The D. A. Thomas Realty Agency reports the following January sales: 31 acres for John Wynn to A. D. Lee; House and lot in Bryantville for A. D. Lee. The "Stone" place on Maple Avenue for J. T. Henry to John A. Conn, Jr., for $4225. H. V. Bastin's Richmond street property to Robert Long.

Mr. Thomas advises us he has some farming lands at right prices for immediate possession.

Died With Flu.

On the way to the grave two legal papers met, by the way of introduction, one said "I am a mortgage deed, and I shall have most of his property" by no means said the other. "I am an Insurance Policy, and I was born to outwit just such fellows as you. I am for the family every time."

People Sympathize, while Gaines, the Insurance Man, pays the CASH. (adv)

Marries Countess.

News has been received here of the marriage of Capt. John Menefee, formerly of Stanford, and a French Countess. He was before he volunteered into the service of the United States, an attorney at Stanford and a graduate of State College. He has been in France with the 84th Division, under General Harry Hale. He was an instructor in bayonet work at Camp Taylor and was considered an efficient officer.

Dawes Case Affirmed.

The case of Jenkins against Dawes, involving one of the best farms in Garrard county and which has been in the courts for a number of years, has finally been closed, the Court of Appeals having affirmed the decisions of the lower courts in favor of the defendant Dawes. The Jenkins heirs were represented by Judge L. L. Walker, while J. E. Robinson espoused the cause of the defendants.

Bank Stock For Sale.

As executor of the estate of Mrs. Anne W. Robinson, I will at eleven o'clock, on Monday, February 24th, 1919 at the Court House steps, in Lancaster, Ky., sell publicly, ten shares of stock of the Citizens National Bank of Lancaster and four shares of stock of the Garrard Bank and Trust Co. Also three Liberty Bonds.

SALEM WALLACE, Executor. Capt. Am Bourne, Auctioneer.

Soldier Without Job Need Not Leave Army.

To solve the problem of unemployed discharged soldiers, the War Department has ordered that no man be discharged from the army against his desire until such time as he can obtain employment in civil life.

BIG HEMP DEAL 800,000 Pounds Of The 1917 Pool, Sold To Spears and Son Last Monday.

One of the biggest deals in the county outside of a real estate deal, was put through last Monday, when Mr. Henry Cox, local agent for Spears and Son, of Paris, bought the entire pool crop of hemp consisting of about 800,000 pounds. The price paid is understood to have been $14. for all the number one grade, $12.00 for the number two grade and $7.00 for the tow. The price paid represents about $100,000 and while it looks good for the sellers, yet it is said that it is not as much as they could have realized had they taken the market price one year ago. The hemp since that time has been stored in the warehouses of Mr. F. B. Marksbury near the depot, and together with the insurance, taxes and other expenses, has cut considerably into their profits.

The hemp in this pool represented about eight hundred acres and was owned by W. B. Burton, W. R. Cook, J. I. Hamilton, G. A. Bowling and Rankin Brothers, all of this county.

Mr. W. S. Kiser, of Paris, who was also instrumental in putting the deal through, informs the writer that a very short crop of hemp will be sown in Garrard county this year, owing partially to the low price and the scarcity of labor. He places the acreage in the county at fifty and says something like 800 acres were sown in 1918, while in 1917 there was about 3,000 acres in Garrard county. This is quite a falling off and what is to be done with the seed this year is also a question that is agitating the farmers to know what to do. Seed had been selling for as much as $5.00 a bushel but at present there is no demand in the county at all.

The price for the 1918 crop has not been fixed, but Mr. Kiser thinks it will start off at about $11.50 a hundred for number one fiber.

ROBBERS GETTING BOLD Many Have Occurred In Lancaster During Last Few Months.

During the past few months several robberies have been reported throughout different parts of the city and as yet none of the guilty parties have been apprehended. One that startled the neighborhood occurred last Saturday evening about six o'clock, Mrs. H. J. Tinsley being the victim of a purse snatcher. Just at that hour as she was entering her front gate a young negro slipped up from behind and snatched her purse which she carried on her arm. She screamed and the young culprit ran hurriedly by the office of Hudson, Hughes and Farnau and in Campbell street to the "chute" and disappeared. Several saw the negro boy running but paid no attention to it. A few months ago little Sausley Hughes had a five dollar bill snatched from his hands as he was on his way home about six o'clock one evening. This boy talked with the boy that robbed Mrs. Tinsley.

The Furitan was entered a few weeks ago and some money and about twenty-five dollars worth of cigarettes taken. No clue. During the fall the pool room was robbed, the safe opened and it is said about $150 was taken from it. No clue.

But the robbery last Monday at the depot caps the climax. Mr. G. M. Patterson was counting his money preparing to take it to the bank, when the train pulled in and he left the money on the table together with several checks amounting to over a hundred dollars, and when he returned a checks were gone. In this haul the thief got about $30 in money beside few minutes later, the money and the checks. No clue.

Baptist Church.

C. D. Strother, who was recently called as pastor of the Lancaster Baptist Church, will preach at both services Sunday February 2nd.

Sunday School at 9:45 A. M., Prof. P. H. Hopkins, superintendent. Preaching 11 A. M. Subject the "Bruised Reed and the Smoking Flax". Evening theme—"One Thing Lacking".

A big Welcome awaits all at the Baptist Church.

There is not a chance for a drop in farm products. Mr. Wilson has asked Congress to appropriate One Hundred Million Dollars to help feed Europe and they will not be self-sustaining for years.

GOOD CROWD But Not Much Business Last Monday.

Last County Court Day brought a good size crowd to town but there was very little business transacted during the day. The stock pens were well filled with cattle and all were sold at prices ranging from 9 to 12 1-2 cents a pound.

During the day several mules changed hands and among the sales were the following: W. V. Gastineau sold a young team of mare mules for $450.00; Will Denny sold Monte Fox a nice one for $275; and Richard Hall a team of light ones to Millard Ham for $250; Wil Rogers bought a three year old mare mule of Robert Shearer for $170, V. A. Lear sold to J. D. Whitehead a team of 7 year old mules for $635, and a five year old team for $500.

R. E. Henry sold a nice three year old horse to J. W. Elmore price $180, Will Cornett bought a walking horse of Lem Teater for $180; Joe Aldridge sold a bunch of heifers to Les Harbor for $30 a head.

Two Red Cross Nurses End Life.

Misses Gladys and Dorothy Cromwell, sisters, of New York, leaped from the rail of the French steamer La Lorraine, as the steamer was in the Caronde river bound for New York last week. Both were drowned. The bodies have not yet been recovered.

Both the young women belonged to the American Red Cross and were returning home. A letter found in their stateroom and addressed to the commanding officer of their Red Cross unit, informed him of their intention "to end it all".

The Misses Cromwell are said to have belonged to a prominent New York family. They had spent much time at the front and friends said they had complained of being tired physically and mentally.

Great Enterprise Shown In Covering Peace Conference.

In accordance with its regular policy, that the best is none too good for its readers, The Louisville Herald, with its usual enterprise, has secured what is probably the most complete news service possible in covering the Peace Conference.

In addition to the Associated Press with its army of correspondents, The Herald has obtained the services of such writers as Guglielmo Ferraro, the famous Italian historian; Albert Thomas, former member of the French cabinet, and Naboth Hedin, Paris correspondent of the Brooklyn Eagle, and five other noted writers, including Senator Gore, of Oklahoma. This means the covering of the Peace Conference from every possible angle of interest to Herald readers.

But the greatest stroke of all is the acquisition of the exclusive news service for Kentucky of the London Daily Express. This great newspaper has for years been the most enterprising of London journals, and its cables will bring to Herald readers the most distinctive and exclusive foreign news printed in the United States.

A Herald advertisement, printed elsewhere in this paper, gives further information of the special service The Herald is offering its readers, together with its subscription rates, and when one considers the galaxy of talent represented in the Herald's news columns, it seems almost impossible that one newspaper should be able to offer its readers such an exclusive intellectual treat. It surely shows wonderful newspaper enterprise.

Bank Stock Sells.

The Citizens National Bank stock belonging to the estate of the late C. A. Arnold sold publicly for $227 a share. Mr. Clarence Tate of Stanford sold twenty shares of the same stock, which was in his mothers name for $225 a share. The stock was purchased by J. W. Sweeney, J. J. Walker and R. L. Walker. The prices at which this stock sold speaks well for this splendid bank, which has a surplus equal to its capital stock and about ten thousand dollars of undivided profits. It paid its stockholders 12 per cent on its capital stock during 1918.

Big Land Sale.

Swinebroad, the "Sale Wizard", has another big sale to his credit, when he sold this week 180 acres of what is known as the Curt Robinson farm to John Hicks at $212.50 per acre. Mr. Hicks looked at several farms in other counties and we are glad that he decided to stay in good old Garrard.

CREATORE OPERA Company Given High Praise By Critics In The East.

If the repetition of success augurs well for continuous success then the audience which will have the good fortune of hearing "Rigoletto" given by the Createore Grand Opera Company at the Lexington Opera House on Tuesday, Feb. 4th, will surely receive a splendid musical gift.

The Createore forces opened their season in Brooklyn and it was on this occasion that New York's most severe critic paid them the following tribute:

"The Createore Opera Company opened with Rigoletto and offered the most delightful surprise. In this great spectacular and exacting opera it proved to be an organization far above the level of the average Italian Opera companies which tour the country with occasional minor appearances in New York theatres.

"Indeed but for the lack of sensationally advertised stars it proved a fair match for the Chicago Opera Company, with which Campanini crowded Lexington Avenue Opera house last season. It raises wonder how any management can afford to give operatic performances of such all around excellence at theatrical prices."

As if the critical critics of Boston, by the way the most high-browish musical city in the United States, were not satisfied with the Brooklyn tribute, here is one from "Bean Centre" who goes even one better:

"Enthusiasm was on tap at the Boston Opera House when the Createore Grand Opera Company opened a fortnight's season with "Aida". The enthusiasm became more and more marked as the opera progressed until at the close of the big acts there were curtain calls for both principals and conductor almost without count."

And so the song of praise continues to come from all over the land where the Createore Grand Opera Company has done its bit in behalf of musical culture.

It seems as if there were no chance left even for the worst skeptic to doubt even for a moment that there is a genuine musical treat coming to Lexington with the Createore Grand Opera Company. (adv)

Mat Cohen Still Looking After Farmers Interests

Mat Cohen, who has been making a great record on behalf of the farmers of Kentucky during his term as Commissioner of Agriculture, has taken another step looking to the eradication of communicable disease in live stock. Commissioner Cohen is just back from Washington where he urged a federal appropriation to be used in the control and eradication of communicable diseases in live stock, the money to be used co-operatively with the states. The last session of the General Assembly appropriated $28,190 for this purpose and if the federal government makes the appropriation it will match Kentucky dollar for dollar. In fact, for every man Kentucky puts into the field, the federal government will put up a man.

Commissioner Cohen believes that the eradication of communicable diseases in live stock will, in a large measure, help to answer the demand for more meat. Since Commissioner Cohen has been on the alert looking after the interests of the farmers and this last step taken by him will not only aid the farmers, but will in a measure help to decrease the cost of meat by increasing the supply.

GERWICK.

A telegram reached here Sunday morning announcing the death of Mrs. Beula Ray Gerwick, a daughter of Albert and Annie Huffman of this county.

She was twice married, the first time to Luther Ray, who died, leaving her a widow with three small children, two of whom died in infancy.

Later she was married to Charlie Gerwick of Clinton, Illinois. To this union were born three children all of whom are real small.

She united with the Baptist church early in life and has ever lived up to her confession. She was a kind neighbor and loved by all who knew her.

She leaves one sister, Mrs. T. L. Broadbush by whom she will be sadly missed and ten brothers, Ben, Price, Scott, Taylor, Andrew and Carl of this place, Everett of Clinton Ill., Oscar of Tulare California, and Grover and Lee, who are "Somewhere in France".

HILL.

Mrs. Rolinda Hill, relict of the late S. A. Hill passed away at her home in Buckeye last Thursday evening, death being due to the infirmities of age, she being 82 years old at the time of her death.

Strange to relate she was the remaining child of a family of four, her three brothers, Nathan, Milton and Tom, having died several years ago and all reached the age of 82 years.

Mrs. Hill was a life long member of the Buckeye Baptist church and was a christian woman in every sense that the word implies. She is survived by three children, Mrs. Lizzie Walker and Messrs J. W. and T. O. Hill, all of this county.

After appropriate services the remains of this dear good woman were laid to rest in the Lancaster cemetery last Friday afternoon.

ARNOLD

The sad death of their infant daughter, Claudyne Hagan, was a severe shock to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Arnold, who live near Bryantville. After only a short illness of pneumonia following influenza, the spirit of the dear little child took its flight last Monday morning at one o'clock. The parents are both stricken with influenza which makes the affliction doubly sad in the loss of their child. Mrs. Arnold before her marriage, was Miss Ella Mae Hagan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hagan of this city.

The remains were interred in the Lancaster cemetery last Tuesday morning after appropriate services at the grave conducted by Rev. C. S. Conant assisted by Rev. Palmer of this city.

The sympathy of the community go out to the parents and relatives in their sad loss.

DOTY.

Mr. John G. Doty, aged 45 years, died at his home near Marksburg this morning at one o'clock after an illness of only a few days.

He contracted influenza which developed into pneumonia in the very acute form and his death had been expected for two or three days.

He is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Mary Doores, of this city. He also leaves eight children, several of whom are sick at this time and the youngest not expected to live.

Mr. Doty was a good citizen, a son of the late Capt. John Doty and has lived in the county all his life.

The widow and children have the deepest sympathy of the community in their great affliction. Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock at the Lancaster cemetery where the interment will take place.

SANDERS.

The passing of Mr. James M. Sanders removes from our county one of the oldest and its most respected citizens. His death occurred at his home on the Poor Ridge pike last Monday night. Had he lived until next November he would have been 95 years old. He fully realizes that his days on earth were more than he should have expected and often spoke to his relatives and friends of the approaching end, having lived far beyond the time allotted to man.

He had lived in Garrard county practically all his life and was known to most of her citizens. He is survived by his wife and two children, Mr. Jesse Sanders of this county, and Mrs. Frank Pierce of Louisville, all of whom were at his bedside when the end came.

His surviving children are by a former marriage, he having been married three times during his life.

He was a devout member of the Christian church and upheld its teachings in his every day life.

Services were conducted at the grave yesterday at eleven o'clock and interment took place immediately afterward in the Lancaster cemetery. The sympathy of the community go out to the family and friends of this good man, whose life was long and well spent.

Illustrious Family.
In tracing the genealogy of a New England family that came from England in 1634, Merton T. Goodrich reports to the Journal of Heredity that 43 per cent of this man's male descendants have held public office. Of his seven sons, five of them held town offices. Many of the female descendants were teachers.

What They Need

You just can't keep children from wading in water and trampling through slush and snow, but you can see that they do not suffer with coughs, colds, croup, sore throats or bronchitis following it.

Foley's Honey and Tar is just what they ought to have when they come in, cold and wet, sneezing and coughing. It makes them feel warm and comfortable, tastes good, soothes a raw inflamed throat, and prevents serious results from the wetting and chill.

Mrs. E. J. Bedard, Cowiche, Wash., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best cough medicine I ever used. I always keep it in the house. A quick cure for coughs and colds."

A Question Of Wages.

The American Federation of Labor has approved and made public the recent report of its committee on reconstruction. This report embodies many interesting and more or less practical recommendations.

It ends, however, with the following remarks on the question of unemployment:—

"Unemployment is due to underconsumption. Underconsumption is caused by low or insufficient wages. Give the workers just wages and their consuming capacity is correspondingly increased. A man's ability to consume is controlled by wages received. Just wages will create a market at home which will far surpass any market which may exist elsewhere and will lesson unemployment.

With all due respect to the many excellent suggestions which the report contains, we take exception to the logic of this statement. It reminds us of the small town where the inhabitants "earned a precarious living by taking in each other's washing."

"Just wages," in the diction of the Federation of Labor, naturally means high wages. But it means, or should mean, a proportionate scale of wages applied to all industries. If the scale of wages is increased in any industry, the cost and selling price of the product increases in the same proportion. Hence the man who has had his wages raised to a "just" standard looks with amazement on the risen price of the articles which he wishes to buy. Nominally his wages are higher, but the purchasing power of them goes no further than before.

We are pleased to see improvement in the condition of the worker, but we think in this one instance the Federation of Labor is reasoning in a circle. Such reasoning ends where it began and arrives nowhere.

Handy Plant in Desert.
In the desert of Sonora, Mexico, there is a plant, the guarqui, which husbands its water supply. The guarqui is a relative of the squash and pumpkin, and inhabits a locality in which practically all the rain falls within a period of six weeks. The base of the stem is swollen to form a hard, woody structure, which in time attains the size of a large squash. It is really nothing more than a vegetable reservoir designed to hoard up the scanty moisture and dole out the precious fluid in time of need.

Removes Oil.
Chloroform will remove machine oil from any garment except a silk one.

It Helps!

There can be no doubt as to the merit of Cardui, the woman's tonic, in the treatment of many troubles peculiar to women. The thousands of women who have been helped by Cardui in the past 40 years, is conclusive proof that it is a good medicine for women who suffer. It should help you, too.

Mrs. N. E. Varner, of Hixson, Tenn., writes: "I was passing through the . . . My back and sides were terrible, and my suffering indescribable. I can't tell just how and where I hurt, about all over. I think . . . I began Cardui, and my pains grew less and less, until I was cured. I am remarkably strong for a woman 64 years of age. I do all my housework. Try Cardui, today. E-76"

Epidemic Recurrence Causes Great Alarm.

The Kentucky Council of Defense has received the following wire from Mr. Grosvenor B. Clarkson, Acting Director, Council of National Defense:

A reappearance of the epidemic of influenza is now threatened in many parts of the country. The Surgeon General of the U. S. Public Health Service has issued a warning. The original epidemic persists widely. Everywhere an epidemic and other abnormal conditions created by war have left millions of people peculiarly susceptible to disease. Risks are aggravated by the fact that medical and sanitary facilities have been depleted to meet war needs and cannot be restored to normal for some time nor without concerted effort. In view of this emergency we recommend that the entire forces of the State Council and State Division of the Woman's Committee be thrown back of the public health authorities. Intensive work locally with individuals is especially called for to guard the population during the winter. Community Councils should, therefore, be instructed to bring together under a definite working arrangement representatives of all local agencies touching health and to put at their joint disposal facilities for reaching the entire community.

The reappearance of the influenza epidemic in many parts of Kentucky in which the disease was supposed to have run its course is disturbing, and the State Council believes that intensive educational work is necessary to protect the people from further ravage by this disease. County and Community Councils are urged to get in touch with the American Red Cross, the local health authorities and the doctors of their several communities and jointly with them form definite working plans for teaching the people how to protect themselves and to impress upon them the importance of isolating persons having influenza and of keeping away from homes where this disease exists unless they are needed there.

The disease may persist for months and the fight against it must be a determined one. General warnings or instructions cannot be relied upon but the individual must be reached.

A district nurse in each community going from home to home to instruct the people how to treat the disease and also how to guard against it would be of great value, and both the American Red Cross and the Kentucky Council of Defense will be ready to cooperate in finding such nurses.

The State Board of Health urges the general use of the Mayo vaccine, which is now being distributed throughout Kentucky.

"Missing In Action."

All through those apprehensive days of the growing casualty lists one feature of the reports was the number "missing in action".

Around these uncertainty mounted like a shriek.

And as the days went on, more and more laggarly with never a word of encouragement, apprehension gave way to the leaden weight of despair.

So in many cases not until the signing of the armistice was there even the slightest ray of hope. In some none ever came.

But many of these victims were found to be in German prisons. Some had been wounded. Some, overcome by weight of numbers, had been taken prisoner outright. Many were more dead than alive.

But every one of them had done his part to the utmost.

Not all of stay-at-homes can say as much.

We have had to face the music here at home. We have answered the call of Uncle Sam, the challenge of duty, the urge of loyalty to what most of us have considered the best of our ability.

Yet not one of us have done our utmost.

And a lot of folks have been "missing in action" without having done anything at all.

Simply laid down their arms and surrendered without firing a shot.

Played the traitor to Uncle Sam, to the country, to humanity, to the boys at the front. To their wives and mothers.

None of us can afford to be in that list. Few will care to be, once they think it over and realize their position.

Every one of us should win a decoration, the only one possible for us. A Liberty Bond, as big as possible.

Wasted Patience.

He was a green Scottish lad, and one of his duties was to answer the telephone. When first called on to do so, in reply to the usual query: "Are you there?" he nodded assent. Again the question came and again and yet again, and each time the boy gave the answering nod. When the question came for the fifth time, however, the boy, losing his temper, roared through the transmitter: "Man, are ye bin? I've been noddin' na held aff for the last half oor!"—Boston Transcript.

Christmas Box Nuisance.

The Christmas box was at one time greatly in evidence—so much in evidence that it finally became an intolerable nuisance, and the people rose up in rebellion against it. At Christmas time hordes of boys and journeymen and apprentices crowded the shops and ran about the streets in certain parts of England begging coins for the small boxes they carried. One can readily imagine how much of a nuisance the boy might make himself under such circumstances.

Quaint Packing of Eggs.

In many Korean towns one sees piles of eggs outside the shops, done up in straw rolls. This is the Korean method of packing eggs. There are, as a rule, ten eggs in a roll, and the straw casing is so cleverly twisted and so strongly woven that it can be moved without fear of the eggs falling out. A native will lift up a roll, place it across his shoulders and march away, and though the roll may sway dangerously to and fro, its contents always remain intact.

Publicity And The Peace Conference.

It is hard for the American people to understand the reserves of European diplomacy. In a country where every male citizen has some share in the government, the processes of governing bodies are public. The American nation knows, day by day, the discussions and decisions of Congress, and only in stress of great emergency is censorship of any kind restored to. Naturally there was dissatisfaction at the idea that the peace conference, whose actions are of so much importance to us all, should sit behind closed doors. We approve President Wilson's remonstrances and trust that these will have their result and that the deliberations of the conference will have due publicity.

Work While at Work.

It's a good thing not to take your hobbies to the office. It's also a good thing to dispense with easy chairs and other luxuries in your place of business. Take the rest cure at home. The office is a place of toil. It should be comfortable, but its appointments should be suggestive of work and efficiency rather than leisure. Instead of making a man feel like taking a nap the office environment should be an urge to his best efforts.

Age No Bar

Here's Lancaster testimony.

Mrs. H. G. Crutchfield, Stanford St, Lancaster, says: "My little boy was greatly troubled with weak kidneys and had no control over their action, which caused no end of annoyance and trouble. The child looked badly. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and began giving them to him according to directions. They promptly cured him." (Statement given NO TROUBLE SINCE.

White Wyandotte Is Kentucky's Pride Layer.

Kentucky's Pride is a White Wyandotte hen that has laid 231 eggs since December 18, 1917. She was among a bunch of pullets sold at public auction in Trigg County a year ago last fall. A poultry expert from the Experiment Station, University of Kentucky, was at the sale, and noticing what a fine layer this pullet promised to be he bought her for the Experiment Station for $2.00. The expert noticed that she had all the marks of a great layer, while many of the farmers at the sale failed to see any difference between her and others sold that day.

The pullet was brought to the Experiment Station farm and used in a housing experiment that is under way there to determine the best type of poultry house for the Kentucky farm. She was placed in a slatted side, open, balloon shaped house that is unfortunately found on many farms. She was put in that house alone with a number of other good prospects and has shown that the type of fowl really has more to do with egg-laying than have other points. She was bred in egg laying blood lines and looked like a real layer, so it was anticipated that she would lay despite the house in which she was kept, and she did. She has laid in short cycles of a few eggs in a clutch, but has never missed more than one or two days at a time, and has not moulted.

Kentucky's Pride as she is now known to a wide circle of poultrymen who have watched her performance during the year just past, will be exhibited at the poultry meeting at the University of Kentucky during Farmers' Week, January 28th to 31st.

The method of feeding poultry for egg production, the way to tell a layer from a nonlayer, the best types of poultry houses, will all be explained to visitors to the University at that time.

Some of us who are familiar with the autobiography of Theodore Roosevelt will now take the occasion to re-read it. The book gives an interesting account of his boyhood and early years, and in his own policies to which he gave the best of his strength and his abilities. No one could describe and explain these things to us as he did; and the book presents to us the living reality of this fearless, manly, wonderful American citizen.

Politics and Farmers.

The farmers Institute is on the verge of being grabbed by a political federation that will probably annihilate the Institute as it now stands.

It will transfer the power and benefits toward a political axle where politics will ally itself with whatever course its bosses see fit and govern the wheel.

We saw what politics could and would do for the farmer and consumer winters ago when fruits and vegetables lay wasting in the fields; when car loads of potatoes, apples and so on lay until they rotted on the very tracks to stall the market and bring up prices while people starved in the big cities in the poorer districts.

It was not the farmers fault. He sold what he could of his produce and in order to lift up prices it was not offered to the retailer but left to rot while thousands starved. The consumer was led to believe but that there was a shortage in the markets and so on but the goods lay unused and wasting away that had required the man power that Uncle Sam had spared to the farmer while it was urgently needed in Europe to produce. That is what politics will do to the crops from our land.

The farmer should put his heel on the heads of these fakers and bush-beaters who now seek to control their affairs. If the farmer is wise he will never let politics rise above his own head and interests in any form.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION.

The necessary number of states has given assent to ratification of the federal prohibition amendment, and on January 16th, 1920 the manufacture and sale of liquor are forbidden by law. Social drinking will become an abandoned custom and arranging the appropriate service of wines for a formal dinner will become one of the lost arts.

The United States is the first great nation to make the experiment of nation-wide prohibition. If it proves satisfactory here other nations will doubtless adopt it.

It was decided that the best form of embodying this great change would be in the form of an amendment to the Constitution. This will ensure the most vigorous enforcement of the law, and will enable the effect of it upon the nation to be speedily observed.

The fact that so many of the states have consented to ratification is significant of a great change in public opinion. A few years ago it would have been thought absolutely impossible that the United States should go "bone dry" within the lifetime of the present generation. Even among those who heartily approved of the principle of prohibition, it would have seemed inconceivable that the nation should adopt it. Admitting that the use of alcohol was subject to great abuse, would the public "stand for" its withdrawal?

The fact that the nation entered into war and that prohibition was strictly enforced in the army gave a great impetus to its advance. The practicality of nation-wide prohibition has been more and more confirmed in the minds of people in general. The proof of this is the rapid response which the states have made in ratifying the amendment.

This legislation will undoubtedly banish altogether some existing evils and minimize others. It will be the plain duty of every citizen of the United States to conform to the law both in the letter and the spirit.

BOLSHEVISM VS. FOOD.

On first consideration the desire of the Allies to raise $400,000,000 to supply food for the starving countries of Europe is accepted at its face value as inspired by a laudable and natural wish to alleviate suffering.

But we are further informed that the ultimate object of this project is to prevent the spread of Bolshevism.

So we learn to supplement the old saying that "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach" by a conviction that his political opinions are also determined by the condition of his stomach.

And why not? Your well-fed man is a contented man. Everything pertaining in any measure to him, from the fit of his shoes to the edicts of his government, is pleasing and satisfactory. Have not you yourself developed a more encouraging view of the municipal government and a larger tolerance for your opponent's religious doctrines after a good dinner?

On the other hand, the man unable to get enough food is an easy prey to pessimism, coveting and desiring other men's goods, might-makes-right ideas, anarchy, and in a word, Bolshevism.

Let the United States make haste with its fund for the satisfaction of the hungry and thereby for the establishment of world peace.

What do we expect of our boys as we see them coming back after their months of army discipline—perhaps with one, two or three gold service stripes on the left sleeve?

It is hard to tell. Different natures react to similar environment so differently. But we should prophesy that the army training will render them more exact in every way, that they will think less of the material side of life and more of its real intent, and that they will feel strongly the responsibilities and duties of citizenship.

What will they expect of us, changed by these months of watching and waiting? They will expect us to be more earnest, of wider sympathies and greater tolerance. If we have not gained these qualities our experience of war and grief and anxiety and sacrifice has done little for us.

A dollar is a man's best friend. It ought to be because man makes it. Yes, but how often does the dollar make the man.

Have Respect For The Uniform.

Secretary Baker has issued an appeal to the discharged officers and men to respect their uniforms. They have maintained a high regard for their fighting apparel while in the service and there is nothing short of the same high respect due since their return to civil life. Thru the liberality of the Government the discharged men are permitted to wear their full uniform for three months from the date of discharge, and if there is one thing that makes us feel like searching some lonely spot in a convenient cemetery there to spend our time in a three by six cell of solitary confinement wherein lies deathly dampness, it is the sight of a soldier under the influence of intoxicants while in uniform. The government placed a high value on the head of every man upon whom the responsibility of winning the war fell, and those men should respect their government too much to disgrace the Nation's uniform. We are proud to say that our boys have shown wonderful respect for their fighting clothes. They have worn them proudly while in the service and have maintained the same standard of morality since returning to civilian life, with few exceptions, and this speaks well of the splendid training they have received and the honor they feel in being chosen to help win the battles for democracy thru the defeat of Prussianism. It is indeed an honor to wear one of Uncle Sam's uniforms, and we feel that those who have returned, as well as those to return, are filled with too much of that old Kentucky blood coursing their veins to ever have it said of them that they ever, by any single act, disgraced their uniform or betrayed the confidence placed in them by their Government.—Springfield Sun.

Germans Plan To Come To America.

Thousands of Germans who fought against America are anxiously waiting for the peace treaty to be signed to emigrate to this country, the House Immigration Committee was told recently by Representative Johnson, of South Dakota, a lieutenant in the Infantry overseas during the war, speaking in favor of legislation stopping immigration during the reconstruction period.

Mr. Johnson said he spoke with numerous German prisoners and that invariably they stated they intended to come to America as soon as the war was over.

"They did not want to return to their country, and they realized that England, France or Italy wouldn't tolerate them," Mr. Johnson said. "The question is, shall this country tolerate them? American soldiers in France are unanimously of the opinion that it should not."

Mary's Flu.

Mary had a little cold That started in her head, And everywhere that Mary went That cold was sure to spread. It followed her to school one day (There wasn't any rule), It made the children cough and sneeze To have that cold in school. She tried hard, but—kerchoo! It didn't do a bit of good, The teacher tried to drive it out; For teacher caught it, too.—Swiped

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our thanks to relatives and friends who were so kind and sympathetic to us during our sickness and the death of our two dear little ones, Nadine and Virgil, and also for the many beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Conn.

Unless the unexpected shall occur, the ex-Kaiser will be convicted and sentenced to death or to life imprisonment. Trial of other members of the Hohenzollern family will follow, and then Admiral von Tirpitz, Gen. von Ludendorff and others high in German war councils will be called to account by means of indictment and trial.

A job for the returned soldier is now a public demand. The idea of a new service flag—for the employer—is launched. A white star on a blue field, containing as many small stars as there are returned soldiers employed, "It should be as much a matter of pride to give a soldier a job as it was to display the fact that an employee had gone to war."

KHAKI COLUMN

The letter below has been received by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Whittaker, of the county from their son, Squire T. Whittaker, who is somewhere in France, doing his bit, and will be read with interest by his numerous friends in the city and county.

"Montior, France, Dec. 1st 1918.

Dear Mother and family:—

Will write you a few lines as this is Sunday night and it is raining and I can't go to town, for the mud is awful here. It has been raining here for a week and we are in tents, and you know that is not like concrete.

Guess you are having some cold days there by this time. I think I will be at home in a short while and I will be glad if I can't talk to these people here and you know what kind of a time we have with them. You were asking if I had been in the trenches yet. I don't think I have and I hope that the war is over so I won't for they say it is very muddy up there, that is all I mind. I have not been very close yet but we have been in a lot of different places and some of them are fine places and some that are not so grand.

Some one said that Uncle Lige was dead. I think that all of the old people are dying, every time I hear from there some one has died, that is more than we have over here. I guess a lot of the boys are at home by this time. I think that the ones to come home are the ones over here.

I did aim to go to see Millard Carter today but did not get off, but am going in a few days if I stay here.

The last time I saw the Yeakey boy was in England and I don't know where he went but some one said he was at the front, I hope he did go for he wanted to go so bad. That was all of his talk.

Well I will close for this time, hope to see you soon. Give my love to all.

Woolfolk, of Louisville, Ky., who is spending her second season at the Palms, will entertain Thursday evening with cards complimenting Mrs. Otter, Mrs. Price and Mrs. Nelson. Those who have been so fortunate as to be on Mrs. Woolfolk's guest list are anticipating a delightful evening."

It may be of local interest to recall that Captain Carter Glass, son of Hon. Carter Glass, Secretary of Treasury, a very democratic young man who has done service in France and who refused all favors his father's prominence might have given him, was a visitor in Lancaster several years ago, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Lettie Mae McRoberts to Mr. Buckner Spindle, at which event he acted as groomsman.

The Woman's Club met Thursday afternoon at their Club rooms with Mrs. W. B. Burton, as leader, assisted by Mrs. J. B. Kinnaird and Mrs. George D. Robinson. The talks given by Lieut. The next meeting will be held Thursday at 3 o'clock instead of 2:30 as heretofore.

Outdoor Exercise.
Outdoor exercise is better for health and complexion than almost any medicine.

Since the Sinn Fein movement has become so aggressive and makes matter for big head lines in the daily papers we are obliged to the one who informs us it is pronounced "Shin-Faynar" and is Gallie for "Ireland for Ourselves".

The world looks on with interest at the effort of the great musical artist, Paderewski, to establish a government in Poland, of which he is to be the head. But it is a mistake to say that the attempt will prove a failure because no great artist can possibly excel in matters of government. This theory is refuted by the operations of some of the most noted painters and architects of the Italian Renaissance, several of whom proved themselves remarkably able in dealing with governmental questions.

Dollar-a-Year Men To Receive Pay.

Dollar-a-year men will soon receive their war pay. It will consist of a regular government pay check, but with this addition—the autograph signature of President Wilson will be attached. The checks are being made out and will be ready for the President's signature when he returns. As most of the dollar-a-year men are in the millionaire or near-millionaire class, it is not anticipated they will experience any immediate need of cashing in these checks. They will be preserved as souvenirs, and in after years can be produced to show the children and grandchildren what their owners did to win the war.—Washington Post.

Don'ts For Wives.

The leader of Rockefeller's church at Cleveland, Ohio, recently took the above heading as his text, and he asked his hearers to put the following ten don'ts in their wives' mirrors:

1. Don't marry a man for a living, but for love. Manhood without money is better than money without manhood.
2. Don't overdress or underdress; common sense is sometimes better than style.
3. A wife with a hobble skirt and a husband with patched trousers make a poor pair. A woman can throw more out of a window with a spoon than a man can put into the cellar with a shovel.

HOW NOT TO RUN A HOUSE.

4. Don't think that the way to run a house is to run away from it. It is wrong to go around lecturing other women on how to bring up children, while you are neglecting your own.
5. Don't tell your troubles to your neighbors. They have enough of their own. Fight it out with yourself if it takes all summer.
6. Don't nag. The saloonkeeper is always glad to welcome your husband with a smile.
7. Don't try to get more out of a looking-glass than you put into it. Nature's sunshine is better for a woman's beauty than man's powders and paints.

WHIST PARTIES AS PERILS.

8. Don't make gamblers and drunkards of your children by running whist parties for prizes and serving punch with a stick in it.
9. Don't forget to tell the truth, especially to the conductor about the age of your child; honesty is worth more to you and them than a nickel. A boy who is 8 years old at home and 6 on the cars will soon learn other things that are not so.

10. Don't forget that home is a woman's kingdom, where she reigns as queen. To be a mother of a Lincoln, a Garfield, or a McKinley, is to be the mother of a prince.

X-Rays in Tuberculosis.

In the finished positive photographic print, the lungs of a normal person show white—this representing the air contained in the cells of the lungs. If the lung is diseased—as in pneumonia—it will show dark, i. e., the cells being occluded with matter. Tuberculosis is diagnosed by the spotted, mottled appearance of the affected lungs.

Aid to Remembrance.

Dorothy has a habit of biting her finger nails. Her father promised her a ruby ring on her birthday if she would stop the habit. At the end of the first day she inquired: "Daddy, if I had the ring on my finger don't you think me could 'member more better?"

Waists That Start At the Waist Line.

That the sleeveless, backless, almost waistless dinner and dance frocks worn by many women are "awful", "abominable" and "must shock our returning heroes" are the assertions of Mrs. James Griswold Wentz, resident and founder of the Women's Republican Club and a woman of assured position in the society of New York and Newport.

Mrs. Wentz directed her opening barrage against our Lady Godivas of 1919, who draw the line only at the waist line, in a recent meeting at the Cosmopolitan Club to consider the girl problem during "demobilization." Deputy Police Commissioner Ellen O'Grady had bewailed the almost complete absence of modesty among many young girls of today. "Consider what the girls see their mothers and other women wearing in the restaurants and other public places", countered Mrs. Wentz. "Think what an example is set them by the abominable undress worn by many women in the evening."

Rightness expresses of actions what straightness does of lines; and there can no more be two kinds of right action than there can be two kinds of straight lines.—Herbert Spencer.

It often requires courage to turn back when we have taken a wrong step, but it is easier to turn back after the first step than after the second or third, and much safer and pleasanter.

A Thousand Growers Witness the Spectacular Sales Amid Great Enthusiasm.

Garrard County Has The Banner Crops.

Last Monday was red letter day in the history of the Danville tobacco market for spectacular averages. The floors of the Peoples Tobacco House was crowded to its utmost capacity with baskets, most of which were piled high with the golden leaves. People from far and near had been hearing of the record breaking sales on the Danville breaks and they were there Monday from the four corners. Automobiles were lined up from Main street to the railroad and from Crescent Heights to Walnut street. It was estimated that there were not less than a thousand people on the floors. Enthusiasm was unbounded. Those who sold their crops were overjoyed and were carrying home checks bearing big figures. Burton and Daley were given a check for $4,412.35 for two wagon loads. R. W. Harberson, Webb and Lister, of Perryville, got $1,950.77 for one load and many others received similar prices. The quality was uniformly good and the prices were, with rare exceptions, above the fifty cent mark. Tobacco men who have visited the breaks in other towns voluntarily declared that the Danville breaks are ahead of anything they ever witnessed. Herewith are given a few of the approximate averages recorded at the Peoples Tobacco House on Perryville street last Monday.

Don't Prod Your Liver to Action

The organs of digestion, assimilation and elimination—the stomach, liver and bowels—are closely allied, and the proper action of any of these organs is largely dependent upon the correct functioning of all the others. A better, safer plan is strengthening and toning the whole digestive and eliminative system with Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets), which not only brings immediate relief, but genuine and lasting benefit. It acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys, improves digestion and assimilation, overcomes biliousness, corrects constipation and quickly relieves sick headache. Get your system thoroughly cleansed and purified for once; stomach, liver and bowels working together in vigorous harmony, and you will not have to take medicine every day—just take one NR Tablet occasionally to keep your system in good condition and always feel your best. Remember it is easier and cheaper to keep well than it is to get well. Get a 25c box and try it with the understanding that it must give you greater relief and benefit than any bowel or liver medicine you ever used or no pay. Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.

Longest Word

In English.

A subscriber asks, "What is the longest word in the English language that is defined in the latest edition of the most complete dictionary?" The latest edition of the Standard Dictionary says under honorificableness: "Honorableness, frequently cited as the longest word in the English literature." But this word is also found in one of the earliest English dictionaries—Bailey's, published in 1756. Anthropomorphologically contains one more letter—namely, twenty-three.

Heart Is Busy Organ.

Your heart is a very busy organ. While you breathe once, it beats four times. At each beat it sends four pounds of blood through your veins and arteries. The weight of the circulating blood is 20 pounds. When you run, your legs and the other parts of your body need more blood, so your heart must pump faster. It is a ceaseless worker.

It Takes Courage—

(The New Success)

To live according to your convictions.

To be what you are and not pretend to be what you are not.

To say "No" squarely and firmly when those around you say "Yes".

To live honestly within your means and not dishonestly upon the means of others.

To speak the truth when by a little prevarication you can get some special advantage.

To refuse to knuckle down to and bend the knee to the wealthy, even though you are poor.

When mortified and embarrassed by humiliating disaster, to seek in your ruins the elements of future success.

To refuse to do a thing which is wrong because others do it, or because it is customary and done in trade.

To stay home evenings and try to improve yourself when your comrades spend their evenings having a good time.

To remain in honest poverty while others grow rich by questionable methods which you could easily use yourself.

To refrain from gossip, when others about you delight in it, and to stand up for an absent person who is being abused.

Not to bend the knee to popular prejudice, but stand firmly erect while others are bowing and fawning for praise and power.

The Heroism of The Moon Light School Teachers.

Thousands of teachers have volunteered during the past five years to teach moonlight schools and to rid their districts of illiteracy. This means six weeks' service, four evenings each week. These teachers go back to the school house and teach two hours. In addition, they make a personal canvass, visiting every illiterate to explain the school, calm his fears and persuade him to enroll. If he fails to come, they make a second or third visit. Teachers in some counties have volunteered and taught a moonlight school for four consecutive years. The State Inspector and Examiner in his report said, "Had the volunteer teachers of Kentucky received even the nominal wage of $1 per evening, their contribution to the State would amount to over one-half million dollars, or the largest contribution ever made by any profession or organization to any public cause in Kentucky." Frequently teachers have written to the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission that they have enjoyed their moonlight school work even better than the day school work for which they are paid. Some teachers in Kentucky have taught as many as twenty-five pupils to read and write. One teacher taught seventy-five, combining four school districts in one. The teacher in Kentucky who has not taught, at least, one illiterate feels like a slacker. Many teachers have already cleared their districts of illiteracy and most of Kentucky's noble band of public school teachers plan to wipe out illiteracy from their districts during this present year that the census taker may find no illiterates in 1920.

The volunteer moonlight school teachers will always hold a sacred place in Kentucky's history, and may their names be engraved on a bronze tablet in the halls of the State Capital. They are already engraved on the hearts of the people.

GOVERNMENT Will Take Farmers Wheat At Great Loss. Appropriation Of $1,250,000,000 Asked For.

It is stated that the Department of Agriculture is now at work framing a bill, soon to be presented to Congress, appropriating $1,250,000,000 to be used by the food administration in purchasing from the farmers the 1919 wheat crop at $2.26 a bushel, the price guaranteed by the government. It is proposed to sell this wheat to the public at the ruling market price, leaving the government to stand the financial loss involved.

War involves many sacrifices, and the tremendous loss which the government seems certain to sustain in its wheat deal is one of them. The agricultural interests of the country show no disposition to accept the sacrifice themselves, consequently there is no course for the government to pursue other than to keep its word to purchase all wheat raised next year at the price stated. The appropriation proposed, all of which may be wiped out in the transaction, imposes a charge of $12.50 per capita upon the entire population of the country.

In accepting the responsibility for supplying food to the allies during the war, the United States last year made a definite compact with the agricultural interests to buy the entire crop, as was done in 1918, at the same guaranteed price. This action was considered necessary in order to stimulate the planting of additional acreage in wheat. Production could only be increased by giving this guarantee, proceed upon the theory that the war and the government was obliged to would last over into 1919 and perhaps longer. France, England, and Italy were taking all the wheat available in this country without questioning the price, and would continue to do so for the period of the war.

Unfortunately for our Treasury, this government had no agreement with its allies to continue the purchase of wheat at a specific price after the cessation of hostilities, and as a result they are now buying their wheat from Argentina and Australia, where it can be purchased at little more than half the price which the farmer receives for it in America. The wheat of the Argentine and Australia, while produced in plentiful supply, was not available during the war because of a lack of shipping, but the moment the armistice was signed England and France sent ships post haste to those countries to bring back cargoes of wheat, and now are taking from the United States only the quantity needed above that which they can secure from the south.

Thus the United States, loyal food purveyor to the stricken world, is left "holding the bag". Her word has been passed to the producers of wheat at home and it must be kept. Contracts for steel, coal, transport, munitions, clothing and many other items required by the war have been canceled by a stroke of the pen, but to date there has come no proposal to cancel the agreement made with the agricultural interests, nor has there been any proposal from the latter to compromise the agreement. Instead the nation must pay either by the plan of buying at the government price and selling at the market price, thus reducing the cost of living materially; or permitting the government price to rule here and thus sustaining the price of flour, bread and other important and necessary items of living. In the end the public must pay. The farmer must have his price.

Far be it for the government of the United States to stoop to a policy of repudiation. Its word is as good as its engraved bond.—Washington Post

The new German Government does not seem very dependable, which shows that it may not be much of a government, but it's very much German.

Why and How Locomotives Puff.

The number of puffs that a locomotive gives in a given distance is governed entirely by the size of its driving wheels. For every turn of the wheels it gives four separate puffs. Therefore, if the circumference of the driving wheels is twenty feet—which is about the average—and the train is going at fifty miles an hour, we get 880 puffs a minute.

The cough or puff is due to the abrupt emission of waste steam from the smokestack. When there are more than eighteen puffs a second the human ear cannot distinguish them separately, and we jump to the conclusion that the locomotive is no longer puffing at its task.

Only one more big war loan drive is planned by the Treasury Department, Secretary Glass said. This will be the Victory Liberty Loan, to be floated probably the last three weeks in April. The amount will not be more than $6,000,000,000, and may be $5,000,000,000.

The German blockade may be relaxed, but the German blockade is still doing business.
